

Itilize kat sa a pou w mande yon entèprèt nan langaj ou prefere a.<h1>HELLO!</h1><h2>INeed AN INTERPRETER.</h2>BONJOU! MWEN BEZWEN YON ENTÈPRÈT. Please contact an interpreter or a bilingual staff member for this language:Tanpri kontakte yon entèprèt oswa yon anplwaye ki pale de lang pou lang sa a.<hr/>*See the back of this card for more details.	Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 is a federal law that protects persons from discrimination based on protected classes including their race, color, and national origin in accessing services, programs, and activities that receive federal financial assistance. All people of Limited English Proficiency are entitled to have professional language assistance when accessing these federally funded programs. U.S. COMMITTEE FOR REFUGEES AND IMMIGRANTS For more information regarding this policy, please go to the U.S. Department of Justice website at www.LEP.gov.
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------