

For Youth: Your Rights and Responsibilities in School

All children and youth in the United States have the right to receive a free public education, regardless of their immigration status, language, or academic level.

Children and Youth's Rights:

Receive support in school as an English learner

Have access to appropriate materials for your grade level in all subjects

Be placed in a classroom environment with other students your age

Participate in programs the school offers, such as those for advanced students or students with disabilities, clubs, and sports

Have a safe, orderly, and drug-free learning environment free from bullying, harassment, and any form of discrimination

Children and Youth's Responsibilities:

☐

Attend school regularly

☐

Arrive at school on time

☐

Be ready to learn every day

☐

Follow the school dress code

☐

Help maintain a safe and orderly school environment

☐

Do not fight with other students, bring weapons or drugs to school, participate in gangs, use offensive language, or threaten others

☐

Show respect and consideration for the property and rights of others
