

Unaccompanied Children:

A Comprehensive Overview

This session offers an overview of Unaccompanied Children (UCs) in the United States, including demographics, common reasons for migration, and the family reunification and sponsor vetting process. It will cover key components such as Home Study and Post-Release Services, care within Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) custody, and cultural considerations. Participants will also explore collaborative approaches to effectively support UCs and their families.

Tuesday,
October 28, 2025

1:00pm-2:30pm
ET

Register Here!

Note: This session is designed for child welfare workers, educators, healthcare professionals, advocates, and other service providers working with or supporting unaccompanied children and their families.

This workshop is not intended for ORR-funded providers.

SCAN HERE