Topics Addressed

- ✓ Understand the experiences of unaccompanied children, including how family separation can occur before migration, during the migration journey, and after reunification with a sponsor in the U.S.
- ✓ Respond with trauma-informed and culturally responsive care, including elevating youth voice, honoring cultural strengths, and supporting healthy family reunifications.
- ✓ Strengthen safety, stability, and long-term resilience, including supporting families separated due to immigration enforcement, addressing family and community impacts, enhancing crisis preparedness, and connecting to trusted community resources.

Who Should Attend

This session is designed for child welfare workers, educators, healthcare professionals, advocates, and other service providers working with or supporting unaccompanied children and their families.

This workshop is not intended for ORR-funded providers.
